TEN CENTS PER WEEK

DEMURRER FILED TO JURISDICTION OF CIRCUIT COURT

Successful Candidates in Calloway Democratic Primary Fight Back.

Think Contest Should Go Before Party Authority.

COMES UP AT TERM IN APRIL

Murray, Ky., Jan. 19. (Special.)— Special demurrer to the suit filed to set aside and declare the recent primary held to nominate Democratic candidates for county officers, illegal and void, has been filed, in which the jurisdiction of the court to interfere in party matters is denied by the successful candidates at the primary.

The original petition of the plaintiffs, D. J. Alexander, who was a candidate for circuit judge; J. K.
Matheny, candidate for circuit clerk,
and W. A. Patterson, who ran for sheriff; alleges that the primary was unfair and irregular, because Republicans were allowed to participate in the primary without first being required to make oath that they had previously voted for Bryan electors,
as was made a qualification to vote
in the primary by the party authority calling it.

A meeting of the candidates, who were given certificates of nomination
by the regularly accepted county executive committee, was held Monday
to arrange to fight the suit in unity,
and it was decided to first try the case out solely on the question of jurisdiction. Recent decisions of the court of appeals, it is claimed, hold that such questions are involved in the controversy must be settled by the governing authority of the party,
and that decision is final without recourse to the courts.

The meeting was attended by all the successful candidates for county and district officers, nominated at the primary, excepting one, Reuben Fairwell, who, it is said, has assurance that his nomination would not be questioned by the faction making the present contest, and should they be successful, would guarantee him no opposition. Mr. Fairwell was nominated for county clerk at the primary by several hundred majority. The three contesting candidates, who brought the suit, were defeated by small majorities, the largest being 30 votes.
These three first demanded a recount of votes cast at the primary, which was granted, and the recount slightly increased their opponent's majorities.

Those Who Won.
The candidates who were given certificates of nomination are as follows:
For county judge, E. P. Phillips; for county attorney, N. B. Barnett; for circuit court clerk, Joe Lancaster;
for county clerk, Reuben Fairwell;
for jailer, West Anderson; for superintendent of schools, Miss Lucile Grogan;
for assessor, William Rogers;
for sheriff, Walter Holland.

Notice of contest before the Democratic committee was first given by three of the defeated candidates, but this was later withdrawn and a civil action to set aside the primary was filed in circuit court. Night riding was an issue before the primary and the strong fight was made for the offices of county judge, county attorney and sheriff. The candidates given certificates of nomination were supported by the law and order element.

Republicans, who participated in the primary, claimed to have paired with Democrats and voted for Bryan, thus qualifying themselves to vote in the primary. Law and order candidates would probably have been defeated, except for Republican votes.

If the special demurrer is overruled
by Judge Cook when court convenes in April the case may be appealed immediately on that point.

Workers national convention convened here today.

FIRE AT MESSINA PUTS END TO ALL WORK OF RESCUE

Messina, Jan. 19.—Fire broke out early today, sweeping unchecked
through the ruins of the entire city.
Little water was to be had and no open space to check the fire. Among the ruins already burned are the city hall, the Bank of Italy and treasury.
The remaining ruins are doubtless lost.

Fire at Lowes Destroys Property Valued at $25,000—The Store of J. R. Lowe and Son is Burned

Blaze Discovered Between 9 and 10 O'clock Last Night.
Proves Uncontrollable—Both Telephones Are Losers.

Lowes, Ky., Jan. 19. (Special.)— Fire completely gutted the general merchandise store of J. R. Lowe & Son last night between 9 and 10 o'clock. In the fire the offices of both telephone companies were destroyed, and it has been impossible to get communication by telephone today.
The loss will amount to $18,000 on the stock, with $5,000 insurance, and the value of the building is estimated at $6,000, with the amount of insurance unknown. The origin of the fire is not known, but it started in the hardware department and spread rapidly to all parts of the double store.
All efforts to check the flames were unavailing.

The store was one of the largest country stores in western Kentucky.
The firm owned two brick one-story buildings, and it was the principal store in Lowes, which is in the northwestern corner of Graves county, about 20 miles from Paducah. Mr.
Lowe, the principal owner, had just completed an invoice, and was in Paducah today preparing to ship goods to his store when he received a message that his store burned last night.
Mr. Lowe returned home at once.

Sparks ignited several adjoining buildings, but the bucket brigade did valiant service, and prevented a spread of the fire.

Foster For Judge

Washington, Jan. 19.—Rufus E.

company of New York, is on his way to New York today. He left here last night after surrendering to the Chicago, Jan. 19.—Mrs. Tucker

and her mother, Mrs. John A. Logan, have declared their intention of being present at the hearing when Colonel Tucker is ordered before the re-

made to make the hearing secret.

TRAMP IS FOUND ALMOST DEAD FROM EXPOSURE AND MAY LOOSE BOTH HIS FEET

Without food or drink for nearly four days, and suffering from exposure, James E. Vine, a tramp from Atlanta, is at the county sanitarium in a serious condition. Both feet have turned black, and it may be impossible to save the limbs. Vine was found helpless yesterday afternoon by children in the loft of the stable of J. C. Cruse, a farmer at Heath.

According to the story of Cruse he is a cocaine fiend, and started tramping to Cairo. When he reached Heath his coke ran out and he crawled into the loft last Friday morning. He wore only thin clothes and had slippers on his feet. While in this condition he was unable to raise any alarm, and not until

This is the second time within a year.

stroyed the Williams building
and all its contents, including

of $50,000. Last year the day after the prohibition election fire

Birmingham, Ala., while there on a

Robinson is a witness before the

to indict Delevan Smith, owner of the News.

Guthrie, Okla., Jan. 19.—The case of Scott Reynolds, arrested last night
on a warrant sworn out by Haskell
him, was continued until Monday,

rant from Reynolds' room will be settled Monday. Papers are still in the hands of the court. They include a number of letters from Reynolds' wife

SMALL PROPERTY OWNER PAYS FULL SHARE OF BURDEN

Mayor Smith Desires to See Him Get Value Received on His Investment.

Advocates Increases in Real Estate Assessment.

NOBODY HURT BY LICENSES

The license ordinance controversy has settled down to a plain demand that occupation tax be reduced, and practically every line of business or trade in the city, whose license was increased, is represented by a demand for a reduction. Several leading citizens, who have attended banquets
and drank toasts to "Greater Paducah, 100,000 inhabitants in 1910!" have privately taken steps to secure a reduction of their licenses, although they did not appear on the floor of the council to urge their objections.

Mayor Smith's motives have been questioned by a newspaper, whose affiliates are among those who made the private request for a reduction.
Yet, Mayor Smith's wholesale grocery license was increased more than the retail merchants' license, and more than most other occupations or businesses.

More than that Mayor Smith, who is, perhaps, the largest property owner in the city, advocates a sharp increase in property assessment. The quadrennial assessment will be made next year and a block map will be used for the first time in making the assessment, so that all property similarly situated will get about the same treatment.

Mayor Smith now pays about $10 a day taxes, and he has raised his own license, although wholesale grocers
on the floor of the council declared that their business was hit harder than any other business by the recent panic. If the real estate assessment is raised next year, as the mayor promises it will be, he will feel the assessment along with other property owners.

The mayor's position was simply that a business man upon assuming the office would be expected to take his share of the burden of the city.
He saw that Paducah was not keeping up repairs on her streets and property; that the people were not receiving value received for the money actually invested; that the city was not keeping up with the demands of a growing population; that the city actually was running in debt and paying interest on money borrowed to meet current expenses.

There is only one difficulty in Paducah's affairs—lack of money. The mayor went to Frankfort and secured an increase from $150 to $500 in the liquor license, and this helped out last year. He paid off a big slice of the floating debt. It is impossible to increase the property assessment this year. The city must have money to give the kind of service the citizens ought to have. He did the only thing practicable: He increased occupation licenses. Some of them were reduced in the general council. There is nothing so high that the men, against whom the license is charged, cannot pay without hardship. The mayor looks on Paducah, as a city, in the light of an enterprise, in which all the citizens are interested, and the progress of which will redound to the benefit of all.
Consequently he cannot understand why the business men, who will reap
the greatest benefit from the improvements, object to paying a license that amounts to less than seven cents
a day, to make as good a city as possible. Many of these same men spend more than that on smokers and Commercial club banquets to talk about the city, and contribute to funds to bring enterprises here (which is public spirited enough), yet they object to a paltry seven cents a day to improve the city.

Some objection is made to the reduction of the license of the small property owner, not receiving full value
on their investment in the city, as long
as someone else holds out.

This is a statement of the mayor's
attitude in the license matter as explained by him to a reporter for The Sun. He believes that in order to give a fair deal to the small property
owner and the renter, who pays his
landlord's taxes, the business men
and the big real estate owners should
come up with their fair share of the burden.

The latter, of course, are using
their influence on the members of
the general council. If the citizens,
who now are bearing their share of
the burden, don't speak up, some of
the members of the general council
are in danger of thinking they hear
vox populi in the cry against increased licenses.

Illinois Assembly Deadlocked With Hopkins Leading in Race for the United States Senatorship

DR. CROSSFIELD SPEAKS.

Dr. R. H. Crossfield, president of Transylvania university, will deliver an address Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Broadway Methodist church. Dr. Crossfield is one of the foremost educators of the state, and a most pleasing orator. He will make the address in response to numerous requests from local people interested in education. His address will be popular in its nature and will be enjoyable as well as instructive.

tail grocers' license being $15. The mayor didn't fix that, though the reason is clear enough. It was to protect the little neighborhood grocery in the outskirts of the city. The few large groceries, did they take a selfish view of the situation, would prefer a license that would tax the little fellows out of existence.
The objectors overlooked the boarding house license, which was not raised. The managing editor of The Sun assumes all blame for that. He suggested that boarding houses, as a rule, are not run for profit, but are the means, in many instances, by which women, generally widows,
make a living.

If any merchants feel that they will have to close their business on account of the additional two cents a day assessed against them this year,
the mayor has been harsh in his license recommendations.

Who Pays His Full Share.

The laboring man or the small salaried man, who by scrupulous economy has saved enough to pay for a home of less than $5,000 value, usually pays taxes on a full assessment of his property. That man bears his share of burden of maintaining the city government, and the rent payer bears his share. Mayor Smith considers that these two classes are not receiving full value for the money they invest in the city, so long as it is allowed to deteriorate and go in debt.

A west end house, that cost $20, 000, is assessed at $1,000. Another two-story brick house, standing on a lot that couldn't be purchased for $3,000, is assessed at $500. Those are examples of cases innumerable brought to the attention of Mayor Smith, and that lead him to believe the assessment will be raised materially next year.

It is freely charged, too, that some merchants, who resist paying two cents more a day license, when the city actually is in distress for lack of adequate means, do not all return full value on their stock of goods for assessment. Some of them do, to be sure, and those that do, are in the same situation as the small property owner, not receiving full value on their investment in the city, as long
as someone else holds out.

This is a statement of the mayor's
attitude in the license matter as explained by him to a reporter for The Sun. He believes that in order to
give a fair deal to the small property
owner and the renter, who pays his
landlord's taxes, the business men
and the big real estate owners should
come up with their fair share of the
burden.

The latter, of course, are using
their influence on the members of
the general council. If the citizens,
who now are bearing their share of
the burden, don't speak up, some of
the members of the general council
are in danger of thinking they hear
vox populi in the cry against increased licenses.

Plunged Into Frigid Surf.

New York, Jan. 19.—Unmindful
of the chill wind bearing stinging sleet, 16 members of the organization known as the Arctic Swimming club, plunged into the frigid surf off Brighton Beach yesterday. The oldest one of the swimmers, who counts
his age at 53, suffered no ill effects after the swim, nor did the youngest member, who is 27. These same men have made it a point to have their dip every Sunday in the year.

Strange Fatality

Turner Nichols, of Fristoe, Marshall county, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon and in a dying condition today. The accident was an odd had a young sapling bent across his wagon to hold the articles down, the pole sprang up and struck him in the head, crushing the skull.

the largest sale since the opening of the loose leaf warehouse. The tobacco was of a good grade and the prices were $9.50 high and $4.75 low.
There were no rejections and the farmers were satisfied with the prices their tobacco brought. The bidding was lively and a large number of tobacco merchants were present. The heaviest purchasers were the American Snuff company, T. J. Stahl & company and Hodge & company.
Other lively bidders and purchasers were Kennedy, Smith & Scott, Mar-

ALLEGED DIAMOND CROOKS BROUGHT BACK TO PADUCAH

Charged With "Switching" Stones on Son of Well Known Diamond Expert.

Arrested at Hopkinsville on Their Arrival.

POLICE PLEASED WITH CATCH.

For obtaining money by false pretenses, G. W. Ervan and Mrs. G. W.
Ervan were arrested in Hopkinsville last night, and were brought back to Paducah this morning by Chief James Collins. It is believed by the police that they have a clever pair of crooks,
and the catch is regarded as a good
one. They are wanted on the charge of switching a "phony" diamond on the son of Ike Cohen, a pawnbroker and diamond expert. When arrested in Hopkinsville last night $280 was found in their possession. They are charged with securing $300.

Yesterday afternoon Ervan and his wife are alleged to have walked into the pawn shop and showed a large diamond, which they wanted to pawn for $300. Mr. and Mrs. Cohen were out at the time, and their son waited on them. A real diamond was shown to the clerk, but after examining the stone, and while getting the money,
it is said, Ervan switched diamonds.
He was given $300, and both left on the 3:30 o'clock train for Hopkinsville.

In a few minutes after his return, Cohen determined that he was holding a "phony" diamond, and went to the police station and swore out a warrant for the couple. The police hurried to the Union station, but the train had left. Chief Collins telephoned to Hopkinsville to watch out for the pair. Last night when the train arrived at Hopkinsville at 6 o'clock Ellis Roper, chief of police,
"spotted" the woman and followed her to the hotel. She registered, and was kept under surveillance. A search was begun by the police and it was learned that a man answering the description of Ervan, had left the train at Gracely. About 10 o'clock last night Ervan drove into Hopkinsville,
and the couple was placed under arrest. At Gracely Ervan had changed clothes and shoes, and they were found in his suit case.

Chief Collins brought them back to Paducah this morning at 9:30 o'clock, and in default of $1,000 bond were locked in the county jail.

Arrested for Shoplifting.

Anthony Jones and Willie Cooper,
colored, were arrested yesterday afternoon on a charge of petit larceny. It is alleged that the negroes were in Harbour's department store and were busy shoplifting. Salesmen held them and the police were notified. City Jailer James Clark went to the store and arrested the negroes.

pany has been promoted to a higher position with the Cairo office, and Mr.

meet Mr. Harper in Cairo.

and probably next week. The music will be a special feature of these meetings. The Paducah male quartette will sing at each evening service. Strangers welcome.

Buchanan has completed his work in Venezuela, although he has not reported the signing of a protocol.

Anson Broke. Chicago, Jan. 19.—"Busted." This is the financial condition of Adrian C. Anson, former baseball leader, as expressed by himself in Judge Fry's debtors' court Saturday. Mr. Anson was explaining why he could not pay a bill for $111. He admitted the possession of a baseball bat, a first baseman's glove (relic of former greatness), and two or three baseballs, but for these he claimed and then received exemption. His income, he stated, depends on the success of his semi-professional team, "Anson's Colts," which he said would be in uniform next season.

SIX TEAMS

WILL HENCEFORTH COMPETE IN CITY LEAGUE.

Lively Scrimmage for Basketball Honors Is Expected Tomorrow Night.

Tomorrow night another double header will be played by the teams in the city basketball league, and some changes in the standing of the teams is promised. All of the players have recovered from the bruises and soreness of the first games, and from now on good fast games will be played. The players have held practice, to get into condition, and last night the ball was thrown around like in mid-season.

More encouraging news of the league is that the quintets of the Paducah Light and Power company and the Knights of Columbus will make their entry into the league next Friday night, which will increase the interest. Wednesday night the Chess, Checker and Whist club, and the High school team will battle, while the D. A. D. and the Elks will also strive for victory. The officials will be: Referee—Frank Davis; umpire—Will Henneberger; doorkeeper—Will Lydon, and timekeeper—Guy Lockwood.

More seats have been added to accommodate the crowds of rosters, and some good yelling is expected Wednesday night.

K. C. Team.

The basketball team of the Knights of Columbus has been selected and the members will compete in the city league with the first game scheduled next Friday night. The lineup will be: Owen Donigan, center; Robert Fitzpatrick, captain, and Joe Loughlin forwards; Joe Fisher and John Donovan, guards. Robert Trantham was elected manager of the team.

LIVESTOCK.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 19.—Cattle—The receipts were 1,782. There was a very good attendance of buyers on the yards, both local and foreign, and trading was fairly active on desirable cattle. Choice well finished butcher cattle were scarce, and sold out readily at full steady to strong prices, in fact, most of the salesmen thought the most desirable kinds sold as much as 10 to 15c higher than a week ago. The medium and inferior kinds were fairly steady, and on account of the scarcity of the best, they sold out more readily than usual. There was a good healthy demand for high grade feeders and stockers and good weight slop steers; prices were firm to a shade better; common light trashy stockers slow and unchanged. Bulls firm; canners and cutters steady. Milch cows unchanged. The heavy steer trade was just about steady, at last week's prices. The pens were well cleared this evening, and the market finished in good shape. We quote shipping steers $4.50 to $5.75; beef steers, $3.00 to $5.00; fat heifers and cows, $3.00 to $4.50; cutters, $2.00 to $3.00; canners, $1.00 to $2.00; bulls, $2.00 to $3.65; feeders, $3.00 to $4.75; stockers, $2.00 to $4.25; choice milch cows, $35.00 to $45.00; common to fair, $10.00 to $20.00.

Calves—Receipts 142. The market ruled steady; bulk of the best, 7 1/4 to 7 3/4 c; medium, 4 to 6 c; culls, 2 1/2 to 4 c.

Hogs—Receipts 3,655. There was a good demand for choice corn fed hogs; tops and roughs sold 5c higher; lights were steady; the pig trade dull, at about steady prices; 160 lbs. and up $6.25; 130 to 160 lbs. $5.75; pigs ranged from $4.75 to $5.20; roughs, $5.75 down. Buyers are still discriminating against hogs from doubtful territory, and refusing to buy them except under guarantee. If they kill soft or oily a reduction of not less than 1c per pound is made.

Sheep and Lambs—Receipts 78. The market ruled firm; good to choice lambs 5 to 6 c; culls, 3 to 5 c; fat sheep, 4c down. No demand for common trashy sheep and lambs.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—Cattle—Receipts about 28,000; steady; beefs, $4.00 to $7.25; Texans, $4.15 to $5.25; westerns, $4.00 to $5.60; stockers and feeders, $3.25 to $5.00; cows and heifers, $1.75 to $5.50; calves, $7.25 to $9.75.

Hogs—Receipts about 46,000; 5c to 10c higher; light, $5.55 to $6.20; mixed, $5.80 to $6.40; heavy, $5.85 to $6.45; rough, $5.85 to $6.00; good to choice heavy, $6.00 to $6.45; pigs, $4.40 to $5.35; bulk of sales, $6.00 to $6.30.

Sheep—Receipts about 22,000; strong; native, $3.25 to $5.60; western, $3.25 to $5.60; yearlings, $6.00 to $7.00; lambs, native, $5.25 to $7.90; western, $5.25 to $7.90.

Kansas City, Jan. 19.—Cattle—Receipts 10,000, including 400 southern; strong; native steers, $4.80 to $6.85; southern steers, $4.25 to $6.15; southern cows, $2.25 to $4.50; native cows and heifers, $2.00 to $6.00; stockers and feeders, $3.40 to $5.50; bulls, $3.25 to $5.00; calves, $4.00 to $8.25; western steers, $4.00 to $6.40; Western cows, $3.00 to $5.00.

Hogs—Receipts 12,000; strong to 5c higher; bulk, $5.75 to $6.20.

Sheep—Receipts 7,000; steady;

Punished.

Once Melissa with me sat.
We were tete-a-teteing;
Rosebud lips were hers, so that Mine went osculating.
"Naughty lips," Melissa cried,
Though hers did distract them;
"Naughty lips, indeed," I sighed;
Naughty lips, I smacked them.

Queer how resentful people are beginning to look when we eye their packages. It makes us feel so sneaky to be looked at like that, when it is only the Christmas spirit actuating our gaze.

KEEP YOUR HEAD UNCOVERED.

The Constant Wearing of a Hat Propagates Dandruff Germs.

There are many men who wear their hats practically all the time when awake, and are blessed with a heavy shock of hair; yet if the scalp of these same men once became infested with dandruff germs, the parasites would multiply all the quicker for lack of air. Baldness would ensue as the final result. Newbro's Herpicide kills these germs and stimulates unhealthy hair to abundant growth. Herpicide is a pleasant hair dressing as well as a dandruff cure and contains not an atom of injurious substance. Sold by leading druggists. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.—R. W. Walker Co., Special Agents.

READ BIBLE

WAY FREEMAN AND SMITH PASS THEIR TIME.

Jailer and Sheriff Besieged With Applicants to Witness Double Hanging.

Both of the condemned murderers, Jonas Smith and George Freeman, seem to realize the fate that is before them, since the have been sentenced, although there is still a chance for them before the court of appeals. To prevent an attempt at jail breaking County Jailer Eaker keeps the two murderers, in separate cell by themselves. Smith cannot read, but Freeman reads the Bible to him all day. Before the verdict of death Smith was unconcerned about the seriousness of the charge against him. Charlie Lee Hill, a murderer who escaped with five years in the penitentiary, is allowed in the murderers' cell at night. Levi Ruff, a negro sentenced to the pen, is kept in the cell several hours during the day, and he reads the Bible to Smith when Freeman is tired.

Should the double hanging be held there will be no need of advertising it to gain publicity as Sheriff John Ogilvie and Jailer Eaker have been besieged with applications for tickets to witness the hanging. The officials explain that the court of appeals may remand the cases, but despite this many have offered money to obtain one of the prized tickets.

Good for cuts, burns, bruises and scratches, but especially recommended for piles—DeWitt's Carbolicized Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by all druggists.

News of Theatres

Miss Florence Davis.

A comedienne who has won her way to high ranks of dramatic stars during the past four seasons, Miss Florence Davis, will bid for favor here on Wednesday night at the Kentucky in the charming sylvan comedy by Henry V. Esmond, "Under the Greenwood Tree," now being given its first American presentation aside from its successful run at the Garrick theater, New York, last season, which followed its equally auspicious engagement at the Lyric in London. The Garrick management have mounted the play for Florence Davis with the complete and elaborate equipment of scenery and costumes used in London and New York runs, and are said to have surrounded her with a cast of highest excellence, including Elliott Dexter and other notable players.

"Buster Brown."

On Thursday night, January 21, The Kentucky will offer "Buster Brown," a musical comedy, that has withstood the crucial test of repeated presentation throughout the country. No better known little chap than R. F. Outcault's "Buster" has ever been given the fun-loving public. And yet all of the boy's popularity must not be attributed to his own personality.

S.S.S. CURES CHRONIC ULCERS

Any chronic ulcer shows an unhealthy and impure condition of the blood. It is a diseased condition of the flesh at that particular spot, caused and kept inflamed and irritated by a continual discharge into it, of unhealthy matter from the circulation. No treatment can have any curative effect except a medicine which will renovate the blood and entirely remove the cause. Salves, washes, lotions, etc., are sometimes helpful in reducing inflammation, cleansing the ulcer, or perhaps lessening the discharge, but such applications do not reach the blood where the disease germs are located and can never effect a cure. S. S. S. goes down into the circulation, drives out all impurities and morbid matter, and by nourishing the flesh with rich pure blood causes the place to heal naturally and permanently. S. S. S. does not make a surface cure, but by beginning at the bottom, and rebuilding broken-down tissue, and supplying healthy, healing qualities to the blood, causes the place to fill in with new, firm flesh, while it steadily but surely effects a permanent cure. The ulcer can not exist when the blood is pure, and S. S. S. will thoroughly purify the blood. Book on Sores and Ulcers and any medical advice free to all who write.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

for there is "Tige," the sharer of Buster's joys and sorrows, and as Buster has grown we have also "Mary Jane," a trio that has never been surpassed in the realms of the cartoon. They are still in the limelight of popularity in the play, with the delightful girl background. This season all new costumes and scenery have been provided together with the latest and most popular songs and music.

"The Smart Set." "The Smart Set" will bring a whole budget of new songs to The Kentucky on January 27, and it's dollars to doughnuts that many of them will linger in our midst for a very indefinite period.

The man who is satisfied with himself has a low estimate of other people.—February Smart Set.

A REWARD OFFERED.

Every electric railway in the United States knows the menace of "fake" accident claims and fraudulent suits. And no honest citizen exists who would not give assistance to prevent any such corrupt cause coming before our courts in the disguise of woe.

Sometimes the sad-faced rascal who is bringing suit was near an accident but did not receive a scratch; sometimes it is an innocent looking criminal who was not even near an accident; sometimes it is a person who was actually hurt but who was to blame himself or herself—and knows it.

Most of these suits arise when some penny-catching lawyer gets hold of a so-called "victim" as dishonest as himself and wants to "share the profits" of suing the Company.

How are such suits maintained?

By perjury.

By witnesses who do not tell the truth.

tion, as timber just now is the greatest necessity. The Italian govern-dering large quantities abroad, but lumber firms have not been able to

Pimples, Rash, Eruptions, Etc., Quickly Eradicated by New Skin Remedy.

Since its discovery one year ago, poslam, the new skin remedy, has, in
its extraordinary accomplishments, exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the eminent specialist who gave it to the world. It has cured thousands of cases of eczema and eradicated facial and other disfigurements of years' standing. The terrible itching attending eczema is stopped with the first application, giving proof of its curative properties at the very outset.

In less serious skin affections, such
as pimples, rash, herpes, blackheads, acne, barber's itch, etc., results show
after an overnight application, only a small quantity being required to effect a cure. Those who use poslam for these minor skin troubles can now avail themselves of the special 50-cent package, recently adopted to meet such needs. Both the 50-cent package and the regular $2 jar may now be obtained in Paducah at Gilbert's and other leading drug stores.

AGED WANDERER IS SENT ON HIS WAY BACK HOME.

After wandering for several weeks,
Andy Farrell, 65 years old, walked into the office of the Charity club
this morning and appealed for aid.
Farrell was thinly clad, and with difficulty gave an intelligent account of his condition. The police could hardly understand him, but learned that he was a member of the Catholic church and lived near St. Vincents, Union county. Father Jansen talked with Farrell and learned that he was a gardener, but had become dissatisfied and had left Morganfield. He passed through Paducah several weeks ago and went to Memphis, but this morning returned. After telling his story he was given transportation to Morganfield, where he has relatives and friends.

Personally appeared before me this Jan. 1, 1909, R. D. MacMillen, business manager of The Sun, who affirms that the above statement of the circulation of The Sun for the month of December, 1908, is true to the best of his knowledge and belief. My commission expires January 10, 1912.PETER PURYEAR,

Not a single day is trivial.—Macterlinck.

Look out for pneumonia.

If "Occasional" could only make himself "semi-occasional," Paducah would be better off.

We know Joe Cannon will support the president in his commission to pass on government works of art. Joe does on art.

Governor Deane, of Illinois, is fortunate in the enemies he has won if they are trying to make him United States senator.

That green New York congressman has to learn that there are other men in congress, who do not like the president any more than he does, and yet do not regard him as a joke.

The Sun feels perfectly justified in speaking right out about the license ordinance because The Sun's license was increased. The Sun is enjoying the unique distinction of not complaining against the license tax.

Kentucky will be the most honored state in the union February 12 when the hundredth anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln will be observed. He was born near Hodgenville, Laramie county, and the Lincoln Memorial association, which is to preserve the farm, will hold its first public demonstration there. President Roosevelt will attend and make the principal address. It is only fitting that public attention, which has been centered on some of the rather deplorable things of which some Kentuckians are capable, should be turned on her other great product—a man.

BUT DOES IT?

A merchant, who conducts a book store with a soda fountain in connection, was told by a city official that the ordinance meant that he should pay a separate tax on each department operating in his place of business. The Sun stated that the official in authority was George Walters. This was not the truth. The official in authority was none other than the mayor himself.—News-Democrat, January 17.

The committee, he (D. E. Wilson) said, went first to George Walters, the city treasurer, and Mr. Wilson said he offered him first his check for $25 and then the money. Mr. Walters told him that he could give him a receipt for that amount, but that it would not be a receipt for all the lines he carried.—News-Democrat, January 19.

The brief talk of Mr. D. E. Wilson, made before the council last night, bears out in every detail the statement made by the News-Democrat.—News-Democrat, January 19.

THE MESSINA HORROR.

A correspondent writing from Italy says that most of the Sicilian houses are of brick with often three or four feet of stone and mortar work inside. At Messina these houses were an average of six stories, and the city is one mass of debris two-stories high without a break where the streets were located. That is why the people were killed when they rushed from their homes, during the half minute allowed them for escape. They are buried under that mass. He said he walked ten hours over the ruins and covered a mile; that nobody has traversed the whole city since the earthquake, and it will be impossible to clear the ruins for eighteen months—until the decomposed bodies of the victims have disintegrated. Such facts as these tell more of the horror of the situation than graphic descriptions of the earthquake could.

SOME STORIES
AROUND TOWN

In "Pleasant Words About People Well Known in Louisville," Saturday's Louisville Times says:

"Former Senator J. Wheeler Campbell, who came to Louisville recently from Paducah, has established himself solidly at the local bar and is proving to be one of the most successful of the younger lawyers. He is associated in the practice with Bernard Flexner. Senator Campbell comes of a family of lawyers, being a son of Judge James Campbell, one of the nestors of the Paducah bar, a nephew of former Congressman Charles K. Wheeler, one of the most learned men at the bar in western Kentucky, and a brother of James Campbell, Jr., city solicitor of Paducah. Before coming to Louisville, Senator Campbell was associated with his father and brother and the firm enjoyed a large and lucrative practice. He is married and lives with his wife and three children on Fourth avenue."

"Frank Fisher, the Paducah postmaster and Republican politician, cannot be induced to devote all his time to politics, although he is a successful player of the game. He finds time to run the biggest newspaper in Paducah, a bank and a coal mine or two. In addition he is interested in life insurance company and owns a bulldog and an automobile."

One of Paducah's society girls, a member of the younger set, probably will be more careful about chirography in the future. Through a slight mistake made while writing a postcard in a hurry, she has been the victim of several jokes. The story is that recently she received a postcard from an old college chum, and one evening last week took a postcard with a view of Paducah, and hurriedly wrote: "Well, I am glad you wrote." This she gave to a young man to mail. The young woman writes a large hand, and the young man found that the initial "W" resembled an "H" so much that he read it that way, which made quite a change in the meaning of the intention of the writer. The letter was mailed, but several friends became aware of the joke, and it reached a climax when one young man called up by telephone, and in an undertone said he was the postmaster and that an "improper" post card had been mailed in the Paducah postoffice. The girl broke right in with profuse explanations. After her lengthy explanation the young man's identity was discovered. However, the joke has not stopped the rounds of the younger society folk.

A new whistle on the engine at the county jail has been the wonder of the residents in that vicinity. Blasts of the whistle could not be understood until an investigation revealed that it was a new "tooter" on the engine. Bud Howell is the engineer and he has wanted a whistle for several months. There was no particular need for the whistle but to satisfy Mr. Howell's ambition, a bright new whistle was purchased. He could not put it on while the boiler was hot, and the fires could not be banked in the day. Saturday night Howell banked the fires early and waited until far into the night when the boiler was cool. Then he patiently worked for several hours to put on the steam whistle. With the job completed, he made steam and then swelled with pride as he pulled the string and heard the whistle shrieking, so his friends say.

Hopkinsville Tobacco.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Jan. 19.—The first sale of the 1908 tobacco by the Planters' Protective association to the Imperial Tobacco company under the agreement made some days ago is reported on this market, this being about 15,000 pounds, which brought from $7 to $10 per hundred.

The second week with the newly opened loose floor was a busy one, sales being held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, large amounts being offered each day which found ready takers. So heavy were the receipts Saturday that another sale will be held today and daily through the week if offerings are sufficient. The manager of the loose floor report that they sold a total of 150,000 pounds during the week on which prices ranged as follows: Trash, $3 @ 4; common lugs, $4.25 @ 5.25; medium lugs, $5.50 @ 6.25; low leaf, $6.50 @ 7.00; common leaf, $7.25 @ 8.00; medium leaf, $8.25 @ 9.25; good leaf, $10.00 @ 12.25. No fine grades were offered.

Sales on the ten markets of the dark tobacco district by the Planters' Protective association for the week ending January 14 were not so heavy as the two preceding weeks. The report of Auditor Scales for the week is as follows:

Clarksville Tobacco.
Clarksville, Tenn., Jan. 19.—Our receipts last week were forty-four hogheads, partly new crop. The salemen of the Planters' association sold last week about 300 hogheads, mainly lugs, at the recently reduced schedule scale of prices.

The first sale of tobacco by the Dark Tobacco Growers' association to the Imperial Tobacco company under the recent agreement, which it is believed will result in 15,000,000 pounds of tobacco being disposed of, was made in Clarksville Friday at the local salesroom.

For old tobacco we quote:
Low lugs $ 5.50 to $ 6.00
Common lugs 6.00 to 6.50
Medium lugs 6.50 to 7.00
Good lugs 7.00 to 7.50
Low leaf 7.00 to 8.00
Common leaf 8.50 to 9.00
Medium leaf 9.50 to 10.50
Good leaf 11.00 to 12.00
Fine leaf 12.00 to 13.50
Choice selections, none offered.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 19.—Whether the burley tobacco growers form a pool or not this year, the largest crop of tobacco ever grown in central Kentucky will undoubtedly be planted, and the warehouses of this city are beginning to make arrangements for handling, at the auction sales next fall, more tobacco than they have in any previous year.

Chapter
Twenty-nine

IT is permissible to turn with some relief, although of a kind more congenial to the cynic than the admirer of humanity, from the tragedy of love in Volsen to the cotery of politics which began to develop itself in Slavna from the hour of the proclamation of young Alexis.

The first result of this auspicious event, following so closely on the issue of Captain Mistitch's expedition, was to give all the diplomats cold. Some took to their beds, others went for a change of air, but one and all had such colds as would certainly prevent them from accepting royal invitations or being present at state functions. Young Alexis had a cold, too, and was consequently unable to issue royal invitations or take his part in state functions. Countess Ellenburg was even more affected—she had lumbago—and even General Stenovsky was advised to keep quiet for a few days.

Only Colonel Staffitz's health seemed proof against the prevailing epidemic. He was constantly to be seen about, very busy at the barracks, very busy at Suleiman's tower, very gay and cheerful on the terrace of the Hotel de Paris, but then he, of course, had been in no way responsible for recent events. He was a soldier and had obeyed orders. Naturally his health was less affected. He was, in fact, in very good temper except when he touched on poor Captain Heures' blundering, violent ways. "Not the man for a delicate mission," he said decisively to Captain Markart. The captain forbore to remind him how it was that Mistitch had been sent on one. The way in which the colonel expressed his opinion made it clear that such a reminder would not be welcome.

The cotery which had engineered the revolution was set at sixes and sevens by its success. The destruction of their common enemy was also the removal of their common interest. Sophy at Volsen did not seem a peril real enough or near enough to bind them together. Countess Ellenburg wanted to be regent, Stenovsky was for a council, with himself in the chair. Staffitz thought himself the obvious man to be commander of Slavna. Stenovsky would have agreed—only it was necessary to keep an eye on Volsen! Now, if he were to be commander, while the colonel took the field with a small, but picked, force! The colonel screwed up his mouth at that. "Make Praskol your headquarters and you'll soon bring the sheepskins to their senses," Stenovsky advised insidiously. Staffitz preferred headquarters at Suleiman's tower! He was not sure that coming back from Praskol with a small force, however picked, would be quite as easy as going there.

In the back of both men's minds there was a bit of news which had just come to hand. The big guns had been delivered and were on their way to Slavna, coming down the Krath in barges. They were consigned to the commandant. Who was that important officer now to be?

When thieves fall out honest men come by their own. The venerable saying involves one postulate—that there shall be honest men to do it. In high places in Slavna this seemed to be a difficulty, and it is not so certain that Kravonia's two great neighbors to east and west quite filled the gap. Their powers were exchanging views now. They were mightily shocked at the way Kravonia had been going on. Their ministers had been worse than any of the other ministers, and their press had a great deal to say about civilization and such like topics. Kravonia was a rich country, and its geographical position was important. The history of the world seems to show that the standard of civilization and morality demanded of a country depends largely on its richness and the importance of its geographical position. The neighbor on the west had plenty of mountains, but wanted some fertile plains. The neighbor on the east had fertile plains adjacent to the Kravonian frontier and would like to hold the mountain as a protection to them. A farseeing statesman would have discerned how important correct behavior was to the interests of Kravonia! The great neighbors began to move in the matter, but they moved slowly. They had to see that their own keen sense of morality was not opposed to the keen sense of morality of other great nations. The right to feel specially outraged is a matter for diplomatic negotiations, often, no doubt, of great delicacy.

So in the meantime Slavna was left to its own devices for a little longer—to amuse itself in its light hearted, unremorseful, extremely unconscious way, and to frown and shake a distant fist at grim, gray, and little Volsen in the hills. With the stern and faithful band who mourned the dead prince neither Stenovsky nor Staffitz seemed for the moment inclined to try conclusions, though each would have been glad to see the other undertake the enterprise. In a military regard, moreover, they were right. The obvious thing, if Sophy still held out, was to wait for the big guns. When once these were in position the old battlements of Volsen could stand scarcely longer than the walls of Jericho. And the guns were at the head of navigation on the Krath now, waiting for an escort to convey them to Slavna. Max von Holbrandt—too insignificant a person to feel called upon to have a cold—moved about Slavna much amused with the situation and highly gratified that the fruit which the cotery had plucked looked like turning bitter in their mouths.

Within the palace on the river bank young Alexis was strutting his brief hour vastly pleased, but Countess Ellenburg was at her prayers again, praying rather indiscriminately against everybody who might be dangerous—against Sophy at Volsen, against the big neighbors, whose designs began to be whispered; against Stenovsky, who was fighting so hard for himself that he gave little heed to her or to her dignity; against Staffitz, who might leave her the dignity, such as it was, but certainly, if he established his own supremacy, would not leave her a shred of power. Perhaps there were speculators also against those accusing shades she raised her petition—the man she had deluded, the man she had helped to kill—but that theme seems too dark for the comedy of Slavna in these days. The most practical step she took, so far as this world goes, was to send a very solid sum of money to a bank in Dresden. It was not the first remittance she had made from Slavna.

Matters stood thus—young Alexis having been on the throne in Slavna and Sophy in Volsen for one week—when Legera ventured out from Zerkovitch's sheltering roof. He had suffered from a chill by no means purely diplomatic; but, apart from that, he had been in no hurry to show himself. He feared to see Rastatz's rat face peering for him. But all was quiet. Sterkoff and Rastatz were busy with their colonel in Suleiman's tower. In fact, nobody took any notice of Legera. His secret, once so vital, was now gossip of the market place. He was secure, but he was also out of a situation.

$50,000 DAMAGES

ASKED BY MRS. LAURA TOONEY NOW AT METROPOLIS.

Charges That Defendants in Rucker Case Greatly Abused Her and Compelled Her to Flee State.

Mrs. Laura Tooney, of Metropolis, Ill., filed suit for $50,000 in federal court late yesterday afternoon for personal injury, insult and abuse, and for mental pain and anguish she received at the hands of alleged night riders at Eddyville on the night of February 15, 1908. On the same night her father, Mr. C. W. Rucker, was taken from his home at Eddyville to the banks of the Cumberland river and whipped.

The suit is based on the fact that the plaintiff, Laura Tooney, on the night of February 15, 1908, was compelled to get up in the middle of the night with her aged mother and her 7-year-old niece at the point of guns of the defendants. The plaintiff, her mother and niece were made to walk out of their home and stand with their hands over their heads with nothing on but their night clothes. The weather was far below freezing. C. W. Rucker was taken from the home to the banks of the Cumberland, where he received bodily injury at the hands of night riders.

Mrs. Tooney, when her father was taken from the home, was made to go in the house and look for her father's gun and pistols, under a threat of being killed if she did not do it. For her own safety Mrs. Tooney was compelled to take up her residence in another state and she with her family went to Metropolis. The home of the plaintiff at Eddyville was shot into and their lives were put in danger and the household goods were greatly damaged. Laura Tooney was subjected to every kind of an insult at the hands of the night riders.

The defendants in the suit are the same as in the suit her father brought.

JOSHUA W. CALDWELL DEAD.

Knoxville, Tenn., Jan. 19.—Joshua W. Caldwell, one of the leading attorneys of this city and the state of Tennessee, died suddenly at his home. Mr. Caldwell was a trustee of the University of Tennessee, former city attorney of Knoxville, and has had numerous other high situations.

He was special master who sold the old East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia railroad to the Southern railway, in 1904. He was associated counsel for the Knoxville Water company in the rate regulation case recently decided by the federal supreme court. He was a man of lofty literary attainments, and has written numerous books which attracted wide attention, notably his "Bench and Bar of Tennessee," and his discussions of the need of a new constitution for Tennessee. Mr. Caldwell was one of the most gifted after-dinner speakers in the south, and he has been heard at banquet boards throughout the country. Mr. Caldwell was 53 years of age at the time of his death.

MAY DEFEAT STONE.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 19.—"The vital question before the people today is honesty in elections," declared Lieutenant Governor McKinley, Republican nominee for United States senator. "I favor the most searching investigation of the recent senatorial primary." A resolution asking for an investigation will be introduced by a Republican. It is intimated that three Democrats, after voting for Senator Stone's re-election, but before the result of the ballot is announced, will ask for permission to change their votes, giving reasons for doing so, and go to another man, thereby defeating Stone, and yet technically discharge the obligation imposed by the primary to vote for Stone. There was no opposition to Stone at the Democratic caucus.

32,000 CASES OF LAND FRAUD

Have Been Dug Up by Special Agents in Field.

Garfield Asks for More Money to Be Used in Efforts to Recover Some of the Lands.

APPROXIMATES $110,000,000.

Washington, Jan. 19.—Information of a startling character of alleged wholesale and astounding frauds upon public lands has come into the possession of Secretary Garfield through special agents in the field. The serious allegation is made that approximately $110,000,000 worth of land in states principally west of the Mississippi river have been fraudulently acquired within the past two years by corporations and individuals.

With a view of recovering these lands Garfield today sent letters to Chairmen Hale and Tawney, of the senate and house appropriation committees respectively, asking for an additional appropriation of $500,000 which if granted with that already asked for will give the department $1,000,000 for the purpose. The specific purpose of the appropriation requested is for preventing "depredations upon public timber, protecting public lands, examining swamp lands," etc. It is stated that there is a reasonable prospect of recovering much of this alleged fraudulently acquired land if the appropriation is promptly made. It is also pointed out that while a million dollars may seem large, it is not one per cent of the commercial value of the land which the government may hope to recover.

Garfield also submits a statement of H. H. Schwartz, chief of the field service, showing over 32,000 distinct cases of alleged land frauds demanding further investigation. The number of such cases that are awaiting investigation by states now pending is:

Oregon, 1,462; California and Nevada, 1,490; Washington and Idaho, 1,325; Montana, 3,005; Colorado, 8,621; Arizona, 496; Wyoming, 21,156; Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin, North and South Dakota, 5,840; Missouri, Louisiana and Arkansas, 1,593; Utah, 1,492; Oklahoma and Kansas, 1,042; New Mexico, 1,265; Florida, Alabama and Mississippi, 1,960.

REVIVAL

INTEREST CONTINUES UNABATED AT FIRST CHRISTIAN.

Cumberland Presbyterian Meetings
Being Conducted By the Rev.
O. A. Barbee.

"Slid doors to Heaven" was the subject of Dr. Crossfield's sermon last night at the First Christian church. Some of the side doors by which many people expect to enter heaven are ancestry, morality, charity, universalism and good intentions. The promise of eternal life is not based upon any or all of these. Jesus said, "I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life," and again, "No man can come unto the Father but by Me." The door to heaven is obedience to Jesus Christ and a Christian life. "Ye must be born again." An immense audience gave strict attention to the sermon, and intense interest was manifested.

When the invitation was given ten people stepped out to confess Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. Following this invitation about 20 converts were baptized by the pastor, Dr. S. B. Moore. This, together with previous confessions, was a solemn and inspiring scene. During the baptism the evangelist quoted many passages of Scripture bearing upon the subject, action and design of this divine ordinance. The crowd last night filled the larger auditorium, balcony and all, with chairs in the aisles. Tonight the sunbeam choir will sing in addition to the regular chorus. Dr. Crossfield will preach as usual at the evening service. His subject is one of general interest and one of no little concern, "Why Men Do Not Go to Church." There is promise of several more accessions tonight. People are coming forward at every service and there are indications of a large, inspiring gathering. The evangelist lectures every afternoon at 4 o'clock on the subject of Sunday school work. Song service begins at 7:30 p. m. Sermon at 8 o'clock.

BEARS WIN FROM CROWD OF BULLS

In Week's Fight in Chicago Wheat Pit.

Net Losses of Over One Cent Recorded—Trading in Corn Light in Volume.

OAT MARKET WAS VERY DULL.

Chicago, Jan. 19.—Bearish wheat news drifted into pit from all quarters of the globe last week, especially during the latter part. As a result prices showed losses for the week all along the line. Up to Friday the market withstood the depressing influences that prices failed to cover, resulting in net losses for the week of 1½c for May, 1¼c for July and ¾c for September.

There were practically no features in the trade of Monday and Tuesday, but traders were ready for almost any sort of action. An important item for both foreign and domestic trade to consider was the further decrease of over 2,000,000 bushels in the European visible supply, bringing the total down to about 52,000,000 bushels, compared with about 75,000,000 last year. Receipts of wheat at Liverpool in three days were only 128,000 bushels, compared with 568,000 bushels during the same period last year.

Argentina Shipping to Europe.

There is now a fair amount of snow covering the winter wheat states and the appearance of low temperatures which are predicted are not expected to further injure a crop which the bulls declare was greatly damaged by last fall's dry weather. Argentina has commenced to ship wheat to Europe and the trade is closely watching for any developments in that direction. Private cables say that the threshing returns thus far are fine though the marketing of the wheat in some provinces is rather backward. Receipts at domestic primary centers continue small, but notwithstanding this fact, stocks at Minneapolis increased over 100,000 during the week.

On Wednesday May wheat sold down to $1.04, the low point of the month, and for a time the bears were in their glory. It was short-lived, however, for the leading bulls came to the rescue and saved the day.

Backache, Pain in the Hips and Groins

In most cases are direct results of WEAK KIDNEYS and INFLAMMATION OF THE BLADDER. The strain on the Kidneys and inflamed membranes lining the neck of the Bladder producing the pain.

LARK'S KIDNEY GLOBES WILL CURE IT

turning what promised to be a rout for the bulls into something approaching a rout for the bears. It required the purchase of less than 1,000,000 bushels by the big bull house, to stem the tide and turn the market upward. The bulls had the advantage of the fact that there had been four days continuous decline, which put the market in shape to tempt more or less profit taking on the early break by the previous short sellers. Purchasers of this sort undoubtedly had much to do with the shaping of the later course of the market. An advance of 2 cents over the low point reached early, however, brought some fairly influential selling pressure, although it was not heavy.

Improvement in Cash Demand.

Thursday a substantial demand was scored in wheat, making about an even break thus far for the week. Leading bulls sustained the market with moderate purchases and forced the fighting and crowded values upward during the session. Important influences were the marked improvement in the cash wheat demand and reports of considerable sales for export. Except for a brief period early in the day, the numerous bearish influences were disregarded. Primary market receipts were larger, indicating that the movement was beginning to recover from the holiday break in the shipping routine and the subsequent severe weather.

On Friday wheat from south of the equator broke the Chicago wheat market. Thursday's Argentine shipments were estimated at a little over 1,000,000 bushels and the official cable gave the shipments from that country for the week at 1,512,000 bushels. Even more of a surprise was found in the Australian shipments of 1,880,000 bushels for the week. This is the first large movement of wheat from either of these countries from this year's harvest and the effect was quite bearish on the trade. No attempt was made by the leading owners of wheat to sustain values and in its absence prices responded to the news current.

Short Sellers Timid.

Early in the week there was all kinds of talk about Patten sales of wheat, some believing that they had been going on for several days. This is just as strongly denied by the bull leader and his friends and, while there is a great deal of bearish feeling in the local trade, short sellers are exceedingly timid. So far as known the bull leaders sold no wheat of consequence and it was difficult to find any trace of their selling, although there were numerous rumors circulated to that effect to help depress values. Those in a position to know say that the bull leaders are perfectly willing to have the bears sell the wheat lower, as they believe by increasing the short interest the market will be much easier to handle later on. They will also get rid of a lot of trailers who have been following them on the bull side. Ordinarily when a large interest is on the bull side of the market and prices show a tendency to decline there is more or less uneasiness shown by the leaders, but there is none to be found among the Patten party.

Playing a Waiting Game.

They are apparently satisfied to play a waiting game despite the popular aversion to such a campaign. Figured out from a statistical standpoint the world's situation commends such a course and from a local speculative standpoint no other seems possible except at considerable cost. The steady maintenance of a level of values so far above that of the world at large probably spells out strenuous times later for those who believe that this country has arrived at the stage where it can be independent of export trade or who believe that it has already exported as it can spare. Official exports for December plainly reflect the effect of elevating the American market above the world's level of prices. The showing was approximately 10,000,000 bushels of wheat and flour as wheat in the United States, as against 23,000,000 bushels for December, 1907. The showing of exports for the last three months shows an increasing unfavorable comparison with the corresponding month of last year, although the first three months of the crop year showed a gain of nearly 9,000,000 bushels over the first three months of the 1907-8 crop year. This gain has been wiped out and a deficit of 13,000,000 bushels substituted by the end of December.

Small Trade in Corn.

Trade in corn was of small volume both speculative and in a shipping way.

There has been little loosening up on offerings from Illinois, but total sales from the country have been light. Selling was fairly general, but offerings were taken on commission houses resting orders. Argentine advice indicate that the crop is thriving and that a wonderful crop is expected.

Friday was the only time any activity was seen in the corn market. A large business was done, the buyer giving way to the seller quite grudgingly, but, nevertheless, steadily losing ground. The speculative feature was the persistent selling by Bartlett-Patten. A number of other large traders also sold. Net changes in prices for the week were ¾c declines for July and September, and a loss of ½c cent for May.

Oats Dull.

Oats have been dull, and prices worked lower in sympathy with corn. Commission houses and floor professionals led the selling, while the buying was of a scattered character. The market continues an uninteresting affair, with little incentive in the situation to trade on either side of the market. Receipts continue moderate in volume, but the cash demand is slow and stocks from week to week show little change. May and September oats were ¼ cent lower for the week, while July lost ¼ cent.

Trading in provisions has been more active than of late. The feature of the week's trade was the buying of 1,000,000 pounds of ribs by a commission house, which was sold by some of the smaller packers. There was good buying of lard and ribs by grain interests, while at no time was there any pressure to sell, the offerings coming largely from the pit talent, who sold to secure profits on the product. May pork gained 30 cents in price last week; May lard was 15 cents higher, and ribs for the same delivery advanced 20 cents.

Work today as if there were no tomorrow, so that when tomorrow does come you may look back on yesterday with pride.

HER FIGURE IS TRIM, HER FORM

SUBLIME.

The actress looked debonair, though the play had been pronounced a frost by the critics.

"It's got to succeed," she explained, "and for that reason, I'm not nervous. Last season I played seven new parts and I burned a lot of good coal for costumes. This season I am radiating with health. My form is ideally proportioned. I took the Marmola Prescription to get this sublime figure, and a woman's figure can not be nearer perfection than what Marmola has made of me. A doctor friend of mine gave me the prescription. He's a brick. It's so simple; just get at any drug store ½ ounce Marmola, ½ ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic and 3½ ounces Peppermint Water and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime. Now I have the strength, enthusiasm and power of a dozen stars. I tell you I am going to be IT." With this the leading lady bowed the reporter out, calling after him, "If you have any lady friends tell them about Marmola, but impress upon them that there are cheap substitutes on the market that do not do the work." In the recently published letters of Mrs. Blaine appear these delightful sentences: "I miss Mr. Blaine, I cannot bear the orderly array of my life. I miss envelopes in the gray, the bespattered table linen, the uncertainty of the meals, for you know he always starts out on his constitutional when he hears them taking in dinner. I miss his unvarying attention and as constant regret." The amount of affection and humor in those words reveals a great wife who has something akin to literary genius. —Youth's Companion.

Mild Laxative for Baby Free

The child of today is the parent of the future, and whether it grows up healthy and strong, or puny and weak, depends upon the intelligence of its parents, for most children are born into the world healthy, but thousands become future weaklings between birth and the age of ten, when the parents are still in greatest control.

The prime cause of trouble is in the stomach. A baby that is digesting its food seldom cries and always looks cheerful; the little child whose stomach is good romps and plays and never whines; the growing child learns well at school and is eager for fun if its head is clear and its stomach light, and that means if it has no constipation.

The best and safest way to cure any irregularity of the stomach and bowels in children is by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a liquid laxative wonderful in its effect as Mrs. John W. Dunham, Apple Creek, O., Mrs. H. L. Culham, Plainville, Ind., and numerous others can testify who give it to their children with extraordinary results.

A bottle only costs 50 cents or $1 according to the size you want, and even one 50-cent bottle will give you a large amount of good in a family. It can be given to any member of the family in constipation, sour stomach, indigestion, torpid liver, dyspepsia, heartburn, sick headache and similar digestive troubles. It never gripes or strangles like pills, tablets, salts and powders, which should not be given to children, women or old folks.

If you have a child or other member of the family who needs, but has never used this grand laxative tonic, send your name and address to the doctor and a free trial bottle will be sent to your home. In this way you can find out what it will do without personal expense.

If there is anything about you that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service.

The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 557 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

HARD TO REACH LINCOLN FARM

Difficulties Attending the Centenary Celebration.

Meeting of Committee and Question of Its Responsibility for the Exercises at the Farm.

MR. COLLIER REPRESENTED.

Louisville, Jan. 19.—An effort was made at a meeting of the executive committee of the Lincoln Farm association to define the exact connection of this committee with the preparations being made for the celebration of the centennial anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln on the Lincoln farm, near Hodgenville, in February.

After considerable discussion and the reading of all correspondence between Col. Andrew Cowan, chairman of the executive committee, and representatives of Robert Collier, chairman of the national executive committee, it was determined that the state committee will have nothing whatever to do with this celebration, its duties extending only so far as the raising of funds in every city and town in the state is concerned.

However, when the meeting was fairly under way, the arrival of Charles E. Miner, confidential secretary of Robert Collier, was announced. Mr. Miner was accompanied by McKenzie Todd, secretary to Governor Willson. Mr. Miner was given the floor at the meeting, and from his talk it was gathered that the local committee is expected to co-operate with the national executive committee in making the arrangements for the celebration of the centennial anniversary of the birth of Lincoln, which it is proposed to observe by laying of the corner-stone of the Lincoln Memorial Hall on the old Lincoln farm.

No Arrangements for Crowd.

The question of facilities for handling crowds then came up, and it was pointed out to Mr. Miner that there are practically no accommodations in Hodgenville for visitors, that no arrangements have been made for sheltering crowds, and that no conveniences can be secured there to carry visitors from Hodgenville to the Lincoln farm, a distance of three miles.

It was also pointed out that practically no work has been done on the farm, beyond bare arrangements for the laying of the corner-stone on a very small part of the foundation of the memorial hall.

Mr. Miner stated that he was fully empowered to make arrangements for the reception and conveyance of the presidential party from Hodgenville to the farm. He said there would be about 150 men in the party, including the speakers, the governor of Kentucky and his staff, the state executive committee from Louisville and others.

It was pointed out to Mr. Miner that the prominence of the guests, including the president of the United States, Cardinal Gibbons, Bishop Galloway, James Grant Wilson and Gen. Luke Wright and many others, would necessarily insure a very large number of visitors.

Mr. Egan, superintendent of the Illinois Central Railroad company, said that his company had received inquiries from fully 2,000 persons who desired to make the trip.

Mr. Miner said that he expected the co-operation of the local committee to take care of the local crowds, but that he had endeavored to discourage too large a gathering, owing to the inaccessibility of the Lincoln farm from Hodgenville.

Mr. Miner to Report Thursday.

After a thorough discussion of the matter, it was determined that Mr. Miner shall go to Hodgenville and remain there until Wednesday evening, or such a time as it will require him to look into the whole situation and report back to the state executive committee, which will meet him at the Board of Trade at noon Thursday.

During the meeting Col. Cowan read letters from J. W. Reed, president of the Commercial club at Hodgenville, stating that the roads there are now practically impassable and that in February they will be almost entirely impassable, unless something heroic is done at once. The Illinois Central Railroad company has agreed to deliver on the ground free of charge cinders enough to fill up the holes in the road, which were described as being deep enough to bury a horse.

Mr. Miner will see Mr. Reed and will also confer with Dr. D. W. Gaddie, a member of the state committee in Hodgenville.

Kodol for dyspepsia and indigestion will digest any and all food at any and all times. Kodol is guaranteed to give prompt relief. Sold by all druggists.

Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime.

Those who have tried it claim that it acts gently but thoroughly on the kidneys, relieving backache and bladder trouble and urinary difficulties before you realize it. Many cases of rheumatism are known to have been relieved within a few days, the pain and swelling diminishing with each dose.

Every man or woman here who feels that their kidneys are not healthy and active, or who suffers from any urinary trouble whatever, should not hesitate to make up this mixture, as it is certain to do much good and may save you from much misery and suffering after while.

A Sweetmeat From Bananas.

Consul Ralph J. Totten, of Puerto Plata, sends the following description of a delicious sweetmeat prepared in Santo Domingo by both natives and foreigners. He says: "It is made from large, thoroughly ripe bananas. The skins are removed and the fruit cut into thin slices about a quarter of an inch in thickness. These pieces are sprinkled with fine or powdered sugar and are placed in the sun, laid out on boards or shallow trays. As the fruit dries out it is turned over several times and each time is dusted with the sugar. In a few days it becomes sufficiently dry and the result is crystallized conserve most delightful to the taste. Those who have eaten this sweetmeat are uniformly pleased with the delicate flavor, holding it superior to any of the costly crystallized fruits.—Consular Reports.

LAYMEN WILL CONSIDER MIS- SIONARY QUESTION.

Will Meet at Birmingham to Talk About Raising Quota of Necessary Money.

Birmingham, Ala., Jan. 19.—In the recent general division of the non-Christian population of the world, the Southern Presbyterian church felt heir to twenty-five millions, and the question of how to reach this widely scattered mass of humanity will be discussed by some of the ablest of the world's thinkers at Birmingham on February 16-18.

The occasion will be the Layman's conference of the Southern Presbyterian church, which will be attended by representative business men from all parts of the south. Speakers will be present also from Canada, England and other countries.

The millions whose religious education has been assumed by the Southern Presbyterian church are divided as follows: Africa, 1,000,000; Brazil, 3,000,000; China, 12,000,000; Cuba, 500,000; Japan, 4,000,000; and Mexico 500,000.

The Birmingham convention, at which these figures will be digested, promises to be the most remarkable gathering held in the south for years. Many prominent bankers, merchants and professional men will be on hand and the deliberations of the conference will be dominated by this business element. It is this class, it is said, that has been chiefly instrumental in forcing the issue to its present prominence and it is the intention to apply the principles of business to the work at hand.

W. D. Nesbitt, chairman of the Alabama Railroad commission, is at the head of the local committee on arrangements and he is being assisted by the leading business men of the city. From one to two thousand delegates are expected.

TOGO TELLS A HAIR-RAISING YARN.

On farm of my Grandfather Ichi near Yeddo was so many Gosts that it was a entire nuisance to have them around. By each sunset they begin to arrive, opening doors & windows and making several sorts of impudence. One fat Gost would fall down chimney with groans & bleed to death on rug, which was untidy. Army of dead Samurai was continually enjoying cavalry battles on potato-patch, and this was hard for agriculture.

My Rev. Grandfather Ichi stand such spirituous rumpage & batt for long time till one night 47 Samurai of warfare appearance come-in his bedroom with battleaxes. With loudy groans & yell they lift them sharp-edge weapons in hands & begins to chop away each other's heads. And when each head was completely removed by ax they lift them choppers to air & shout in unison: "We chop-it!"

For 63 complete nights them 47 dead war-makers com-in my Grandfather's bedroom, make such battle-ax exercises & decry: "We chop-it!" But one night my Grandfather arrive tired of this because he must get sufficient sleep for hoe-potatoes next A. M. So when them genteel axers arrive for do blood-ceremony he set up in bed and corrode: "Hon.

Samurai, excuse please, but this are my farm & you welcome to get out."

"We chop-it!" reing all them Gosts in unison.

"So-well," olicute my Rev. Grandfather. "If you are so anxious to chop-it you are invited to go back-door & chop-it 18 cords hickory wood."

So with heart-broke scream them Hon. Gosts depart away for more easy job & remain quietly buried every since.—Collier's for January 16.

WHOLE ORDINANCE WAS UNDER FIRE

Petition Submitted to Reinstate 1908 Licenses.

Question Submitted to License Committee By Lower Board of General Council Last Night.

ALL MEMBERS WERE PRESENT

At last night's council meeting all members were present and the council chamber was filled with retail merchants of the city and wholesale jobbers, who complained of the license imposed upon them by the new ordinance.

Attorney F. N. Burns was present and spoke in behalf of the Retail Merchants' association. Mr. Burns asked the council to reconsider the action it took in placing the licenses of retail merchants at different amounts and at such a high figure. Mr. Burns stated that he was in Louisville last week and the license of the Louisville retail merchants were much lower than in this city under the new ordinance. He said Louisville passed a high license ordinance, but that the ordinance was never put in force. Mr. Burns asked that immediate action be taken on his request so that the merchants could pay their licenses before February 1, when the penalty is imposed. The request was referred to the license committee to report back to the council at the next meeting.

Mr. D. E. Wilson, the book and music man, spoke on the high license of the retail merchants. Mr. Wilson stated that he had offered his check for $25 and was refused by G. W. Walters, who is a claimant for the city treasurership. He then offered $25 in cash and was turned down. Mr. Walters told him that his license would be $100. Mr. Walters informed Mr. Wilson that he was acting on the advice of the city solicitor. Mr. Wilson then went to City Solicitor Campbell and Mr. Campbell told him that Mr. Walters was acting on his advice but that the soda fountain license of $25 would be omitted when carried on with another business, making the license $75. Mayor James P. Smith was next called upon, by Messrs. Wilson, Gleaves and Harbourn, a committee appointed by the Retail Merchants' association. Mr. Wilson also asked for immediate action on the request of the retail merchants.

Councilman Hannin made the motion, and it was seconded by Councilman Kreutzer, that the license ordinance for 1909 be repealed and the license ordinance of 1908 be put in force. Councilman Young informed the board that the motion was out of order, that in order to repeal an ordinance, an ordinance must be brought in to that effect. Hannin's motion was dropped.

Councilman Duvall was not in favor of making any changes in the new license ordinance and expressed himself so several times. He said it would reflect on the council that the board did not know what it was doing when the ordinance was passed, and if one change was made there would be no end of "kicks" for a change in licenses.

A petition with a number of the wholesale grocers of the city as signers was read. The petition asked for a change of license from $100 per year to $50 per year. Last year the license was $25. The petition was referred to the license committee on motion of Councilman Duvall. Mr. I. Nauehm, a wholesale grocer, informed the council the wholesale grocers were among the heaviest taxpayers in the city and that the panic of last year had hurt the business of the wholesale grocers more than any other business man. He said that business had dropped off last year a great deal and that the city does not need the money.

The barbers' petition, previously referred to the license committee, asking that the license on barber chairs be made the same as last year, $3 for the first chair and $2 for each chair after the first one, and no license placed on bath rooms, was not granted. The license committee recommended the change, but the council did not concur in the recommendation. The vote was 6 yeas and 6 nays. Those voting yeas were Councilmen Foreman, Bower, Hannin, Kreutzer, Lally and McCarthy. Those voting nays were Councilmen Duvall, Mayer, Van Meter, Wanner, Wilson and Young. Councilman Duvall said that he was not in favor of butchering up the license ordinance at the beginning, but that the council would be willing to amend mistakes.

City Health Report.
Dr. H. P. Sights, city health officer, made his yearly report and it was received and ordered published. Dr. Sights in his report praised the city in the support it had given the city health department during the last year. The report showed a death rate of 12 per cent on the 1,000 inhabitants, which is much smaller than the previous year. There were 375 deaths last year in the city and a population of 30,000. Dr. Sights in his report recommended that the council pass an ordinance, providing for the cutting of weeds in the city limits, to keep up the parks, to oil the streets, to clean the levee from Broadway to the Illinois Central incline and to provide a tent hospital for tuberculosis patients. There were 58 deaths last year due to the "white plague."

Dr. Sights recommended that the board pass an ordinance, providing for the vaccination of citizens, as there are several cases of smallpox in the city. Two cases developed yesterday and there are a hundred or more people exposed to the disease. Councilman Van Meter moved that the ordinance committee bring in an ordinance to that effect.

M. L. Rickman was granted a saloon license at 1167 North Twelfth street. Councilman Duvall voted against the granting of the license.

On motion of Councilman Van Meter the chief of police will be instructed to have three chairs placed near the president's desk for the mayor, city solicitor and city engineer.
